For the Love of Conor Luncheon

On August 21, 2008 we lost our son and brother, Conor Costello, to a long fought battle with addiction. Conor was a brilliant, charismatic young man filled with promise. Although we miss him each and everyday, our family remains inspired and hopeful. We wish to share Conor's story and the story of others who have lost their lives, or made choices that severely impacted their lives, in order that we may help families and young people avoid and prevent the perils of addiction and negative life choices.
